

Political Conflicts in Africa

A Comprehensive Overview

Number of Fatalities

705K

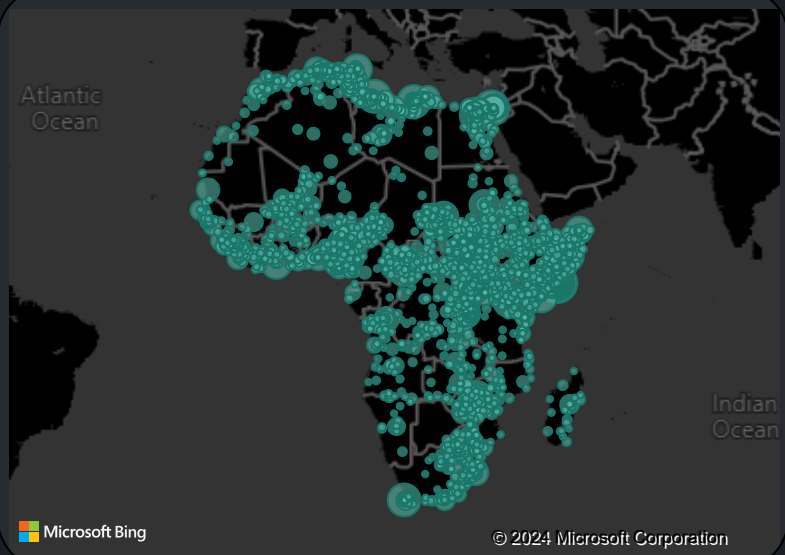

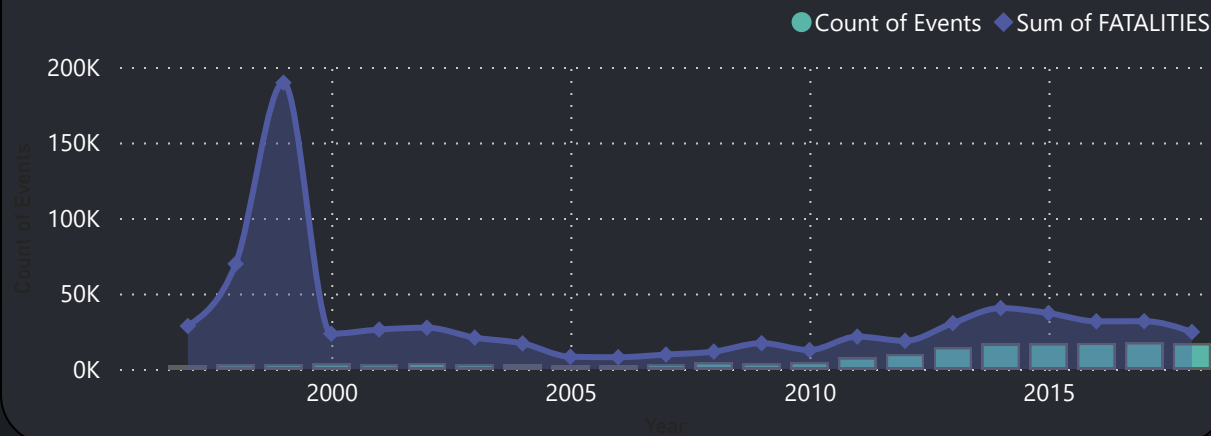

Number of Events

27.33K

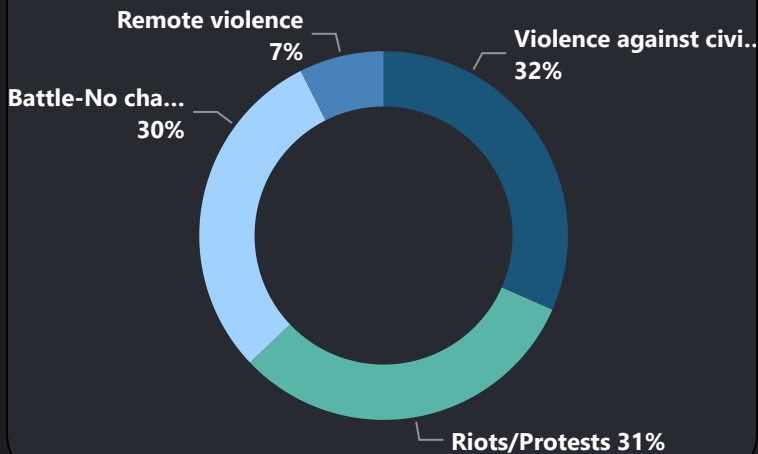

Number of Fatalities by Country

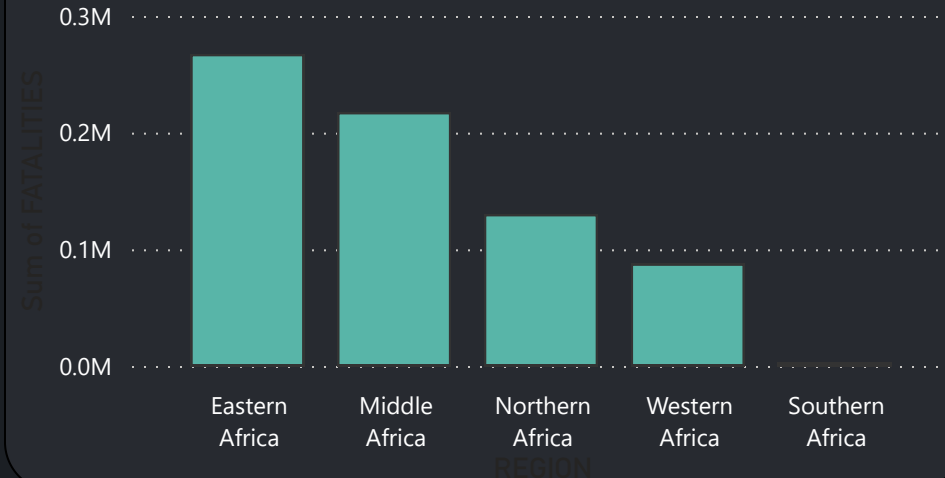

Number of Events and Fatalities over Time

Event Type Distribution

Sum of Fatalities by Region

Spotlight on Political Conflicts and Participants

Number of Fatalities

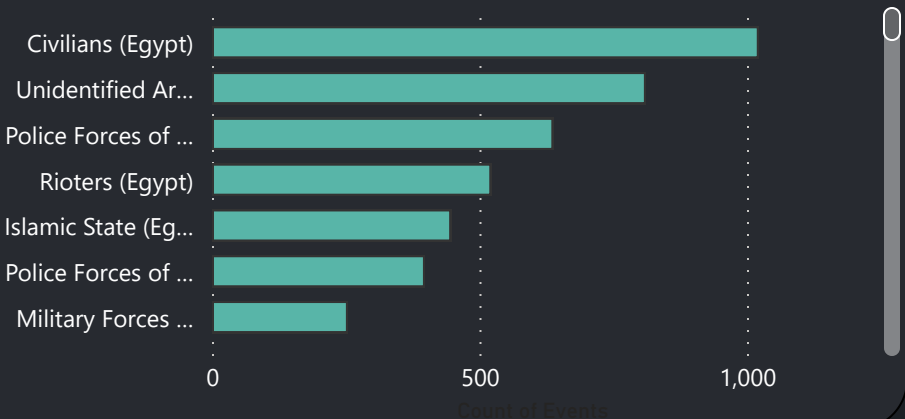

13K

Number of Events

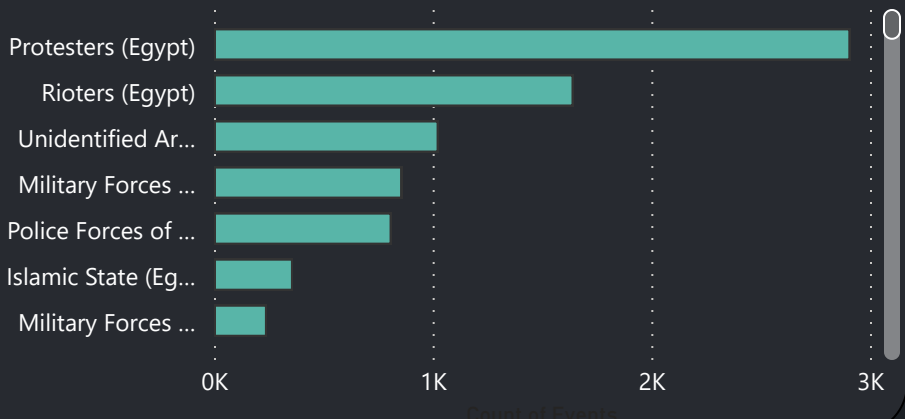

8843

Algeria	Democratic Republic of Congo
Angola	Djibouti
Benin	Egypt
Botswana	Equatorial Guinea
Burkina Faso	Eritrea
Burundi	eSwatini
Cameroon	Ethiopia
Central African Republic	Gabon
Chad	Gambia

Secondary Actors in Conflicts

Primary Actors in Conflicts

Events Across Cities

Count of Political Events by Event Type

Event Types Explored

Actors, Locations, and Trends

Number of Fatalities

13K

Number of Events

8844

Egypt

Battle-Government regains territory

Battle-No change of territory

Battle-Non-state actor overtakes territory

Headquarters or base established

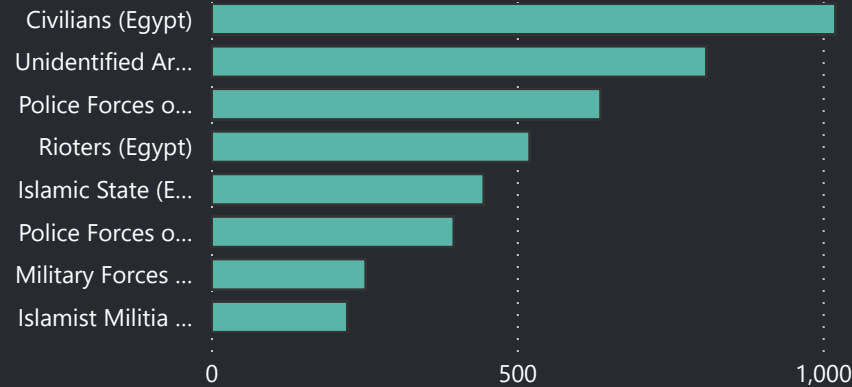

Remote violence

Riots/Protests

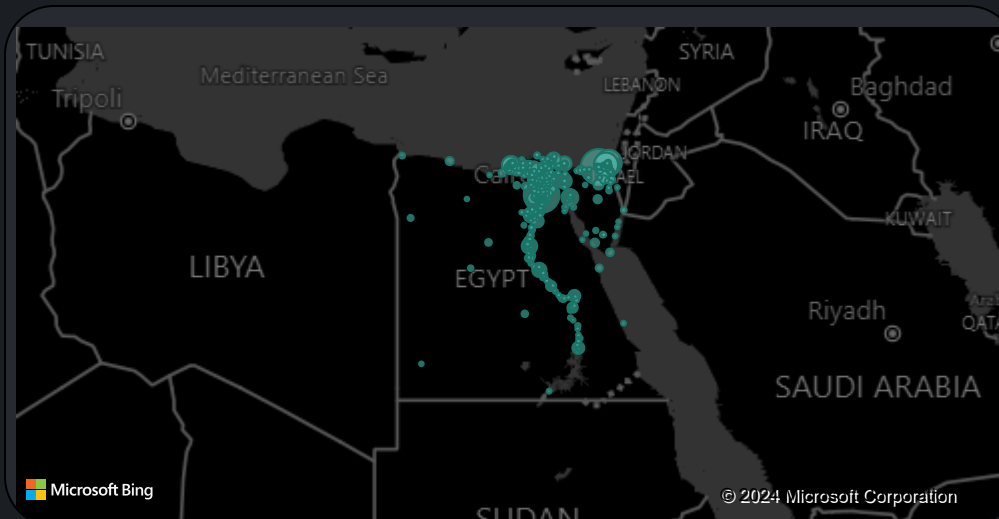

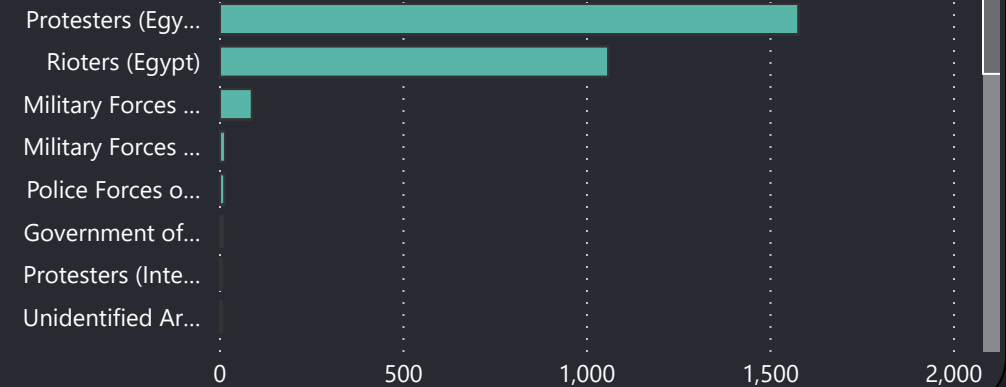

Strategic development

Violence against civilians

Secondary Actors in Event Types

Primary Actors in Event Types

Count of Selected Event Types Over Time

Event Details: Exploring Specific Political Incidents

Clear all slicers

Number of Fatalities

2

Egypt

2012 (Year) + 02/05/2012 (EVENT_DATE)

Cairo

Primary Actor

Rioters (Egypt)

Secondary Actor

Police Forces of Egypt
(2011-2012)

Event Type

Riots/Protests

Event Description

In an effort to quell rioters following several days of clashes police erect a barrier near the Interior Ministry Building to insulate it from demonstrators. Despite their efforts many in the mob continued to throw rocks and petrol bombs. One reported dead of a gunshot wound, one later died due to wounds sustained.